Enemies of free enterprise

In the United States, we have a lot of enemies of free enterprise. Some of them are big companies that want to control the market, while others are politicians who want to control the people. But, the biggest enemy of free enterprise is the government itself.

Out of the Past

From the files of the Dallas Watchman

In 1943, the Dallas Watchman published an article about the United States Navy. The article mentioned that the navy was in need of volunteers and that the government was offering incentives for enlistment.

Instead of fitness clubs, gyms and other places to exercise, I prefer to walk to work. It’s a great way to get some exercise and it’s a lot cheaper than joining a gym.

Some water customers surprised

Payments don’t reach city

A number of water customers are not satisfied with the city’s new billing system. When a charge is calculated, it is added to the monthly water bill. Customers who pay the bill on time may not receive a refund, even if they paid less than what was charged. This is because the city billing system does not allow for refunds. The new system is designed to ensure accurate billing and to increase revenue for the city. However, some customers argue that they are being overcharged and that they should be able to receive a refund if they discover any mistakes. The city has stated that it will continue to improve its billing system and will consider implementing a way to issue refunds if possible. In the meantime, customers are encouraged to check their water bills carefully and to report any discrepancies they find.
