Keep off the grass!

In Tuesday’s Cardi, we published an article by Ann Parker, who expressed her frustration with the city’s efforts to maintain its parks and recreation areas. She mentioned that the city has been neglecting the care of its parks and that the grass is becoming too high for her to enjoy. She also mentioned that she had observed children and pets playing on the grass, which she felt was not a safe environment for them.

In response, we would like to bring to your attention the importance of maintaining a safe and enjoyable environment for all visitors of the city’s parks. The city has invested a significant amount of money in creating and maintaining these parks, and it is important that we all work together to ensure that they remain safe and accessible for all.

We encourage all citizens to take pride in our community and to contribute to its upkeep. By working together, we can create a safe and enjoyable environment for all.

Free enterprise

By Vic Parker

The State of Louisiana, as well as the federal government, are both considering the implementation of a soda tax. This tax would be imposed on sugary beverages, with proceeds going towards funding public health initiatives.

While some may argue that this tax is necessary to combat obesity and improve public health, others believe that it is an infringement on personal freedom and the free market.

We believe that free enterprise is a fundamental principle of our country, and that imposing a tax on sugary beverages would be a violation of this principle. Instead, we suggest focusing on education and providing resources to help individuals make healthier choices.

In conclusion, while the soda tax may seem like a quick fix to combat obesity, we believe that it would ultimately have negative consequences for the economy and individual freedom.

Church is not the place for a nap

I have noticed that at times or another, some church members tend to fall asleep during worship services. This is unfortunate because church is not a place for a nap.

Church is a place for fellowship, worship, and spiritual growth. It is a place to connect with others, to pray, and to seek solace in the presence of God. It is not a place for relaxation or rest.

As a member of the church, I urge everyone to be attentive during worship services. Let us strive to be present and engaged, and to respect the time and effort that others have put into preparing for these services.

Carthage wins the battle . . .

but loses the district war

By J. F. PARROU

The win against Marshall was Carthage's first of the season, and the Tigers are now 1-4 overall and 0-2 in district play. Carthage has a tough district schedule, and the Tigers have a lot of work to do if they hope to make the playoffs.

The Tigers played well against Marshall, and had a good chance to win the game. The game was tied at 14-14 at the end of the third quarter, but Carthage was unable to score in the fourth quarter.

Marshall's defense was strong, and the Tigers were unable to score after halftime. Carthage coach Mike Monroe said after the game that his team needs to work on its offense and defense.

"We need to get back to the basics," Monroe said. "We need to work on our fundamentals, and we need to execute our plays better."
Jackets fall to Waskom 27-20

The Carthage Tigers expected a difficult battle against the visiting Waskom Bulldogs and they got just that.

Two touchdown passes by Waskom quarterback Bryan Scaggs, a 31-yard run by running back Baylor Rose and a hard-fought struggle won by Waskom, 27-20.

"We played a good game today," said Carthage head coach Tim Brown. "They were a tough team and we gave them a good game."
