Chorus opens Yule season

Several hundred attended the opening of the Carthage Community Chorus last week. The chorus is under the direction of Mr. Joffrion, who is also the director of the choir at the University of Tennessee. The chorus performed several selections from various sources, including Christmas carols and songs from other cultures. The performance was well-received by the audience, who gave a standing ovation at the conclusion of the program.

Just wait

By Vic Parker

If you think you know your way around a kitchen, you must have been born with those skills. After all, it's not everyday that you find yourself in a situation where you have to grill something to death. But that's exactly what happens when you try to cook without proper knowledge. It's not just about following the recipe, it's about knowing when to add the necessary seasonings and how much time to spend on each step. If you're not careful, you could end up with a burnt dinner! So next time you're in the kitchen, take a deep breath and just wait for the magic to happen on its own.

The winners

During the Christmas season, there are always winners and losers. We should all be thankful for the winners who make the season so special. However, it's also important to remember those who may be struggling during the holidays. Let's make it a priority to support those in need and spread joy to everyone.

CBE energy waste saddening

Editor: Pamela Parker

I enjoy reading the Pauma Observer. It's been a great addition to my daily routine. However, I was disappointed to see the recent article about CBE's energy waste. It's saddening to see how much energy is being wasted and I hope they can find ways to reduce it.

Christmas tree shopping...in the attic

Marshall Douglas

It's just about time to start looking for a Christmas tree. I love to decorate my house with a beautiful tree that gives off a festive vibe. However, it's not always easy to find the perfect tree. Sometimes, you have to scour the shopping centers and still not find the one you want. But this year, I decided to look in the attic. Believe it or not, I found a beautiful tree that perfectly fit my needs. It's amazing how sometimes you have to look beyond the obvious to find what you're looking for.

The Pauman Observer

 turkeys and mutton, stink fish and stale beer.

I love coming home from work and being greeted by the scent of a delicious meal. However, I often find myself overwhelmed by the thought of cooking a holiday dinner. That's why I decided to call my local restaurant and order a holiday dinner. It was the best decision I've ever made. Not only did I save time, but I also got to enjoy a delightful meal.
