Crisis brought out the best

By TOM JONES
The Nevada News

"The only thing I can say is that this is a beautiful, lovely town with lots of Christian people who have gone the right way in my life," said Mrs. Kelly. Kelly is the older of a number of Nevada County volunteers, and she and her family came to the community to help the local residents. Mrs. Kelly, her husband, and their two sons, are all volunteer firefighters and community leaders.

Kelly's family has been active in the community for several years, and they have been big supporters of local events, including the Nevada County Fair. They have also been involved in other community projects, such as the Nevada County Library.

Although they initially had only been passing through the area, Mrs. Kelly and her family decided to stay and help the local residents. They are now considered to be part of the family by the residents of Nevada County.

"I appreciate your community so much," Mrs. Kelly said. "Everyone here has been so supportive and welcoming. I am glad we could help in any way we could."

The Kelly family has two sons, Robert, 12, and Earl, 10. Saturday was Robert's birthday. "People even gave him a birthday cake," Mrs. Kelly said. "It was a great day for all of us."

The Nevada County Fair is scheduled for this weekend, and the Kelly family plans to participate in the fair and other community events. They are looking forward to spending time with their family and friends in the Nevada County community.

County changes locks on JP office

By MARSHALL DOUGLAS
Watchman Editor

Sergeant Troy McWilliams of the County Sheriff's Office announced that the locks on the Juvenile Precinct's Justice of the Peace office will be changed on Thursday. The new locks will be installed on the door of the office and will be used to secure the records and other items that are kept in the office.

McWilliams said that the change was necessary because of a previous incident where the locks were not working properly. The new locks will be more secure and will prevent any unauthorized access to the office.

Tornado-like winds hit local farm

By TOM JONES
Nevada News

"What was even a tornado or what?" asked Mrs. Nutter, who lives near the farm where the tornado-like winds hit.

"It sounded like a freight train," said Mrs. Nutter. "We were sitting in the living room when it started. The windows were rattling and the ceiling was shaking."

Mrs. Nutter said that her family was able to escape unharmed, but she was worried about the damage that had been done to the farm.

"I'm just glad we're all okay," she said. "I hope the animals are okay."

Gusty winds were reported to have caused damage to the barn and other structures on the farm. The Nevada County Sheriff's Office and other local authorities are investigating the incident.

Soape enters race for county judge

By MARSHALL DOUGLAS
Watchman Editor

Nevada County's Democratic Primary is scheduled for this weekend, and the race for County Judge is one of the most热切的竞争 among the candidates. Four candidates are vying for the position, and the winner will be determined by the votes of the voters.

The four candidates are Tom Soape, who is the incumbent judge; Keith Dyer; John Lamont; and David Trent. All four candidates are members of the Democratic Party, and they are all well-known in the community.

Tom Soape is seeking re-election to the position of County Judge, and he has held the position for the past 10 years. Soape is a member of the Democratic Party and has been a vocal supporter of the party's policies.

Keith Dyer is a member of the Republican Party, and he has been a candidate for the position of County Judge in the past. Dyer is a former law enforcement officer and is well-known in the community.

John Lamont is a member of the Independent Party, and he has been a candidate for the position of County Judge in the past. Lamont is a former business owner and is well-known in the community.

David Trent is a member of the Libertarian Party, and he has been a candidate for the position of County Judge in the past. Trent is a former military officer and is well-known in the community.

The primary election is scheduled for this weekend, and the winner will be determined by the votes of the voters. The general election is scheduled for November, and the winner of the general election will serve as County Judge for the next term.

In response to the recent series of public events, I believe it is important to address the need for increased security measures in public places. The recent incidents have highlighted the vulnerability of these venues, and it is crucial that we take steps to ensure the safety of all attendees.

Blame

By Tom Jones

The recent events have sparked a debate about the role of blame and responsibility. It is important to recognize that accidents can happen, and instead of focusing on assigning blame, we should work together to prevent similar situations from occurring in the future.

Entertainment

By Tom Jones

The entertainment industry has faced significant challenges in recent times. With the rise of new technologies and changing audience preferences, it is crucial that we adapt and innovate to stay relevant and competitive.

Police arrest three for DWI

In a recent incident, three individuals were arrested for DWI. The incident highlights the importance of responsible drinking and driving. It is crucial that we continue to educate the public on the dangers of impaired driving.

Court squabble interests county

The recent court case has sparked interest in the county. It is important to ensure that the justice system is fair and impartial, and that all individuals receive a fair trial.

The sideliners: Will offense make the difference for the 1982 Bulldogs? Part Two

By KYLIE BARROWStaff sports editor

The new coach and the new offense may be the difference for the 1982 Bulldogs. Coach Joe Bybee has been on the scene for the last two weeks, and he has already introduced his new offense to the team. The Bulldogs will need to make the transition quickly if they want to have a successful season.

Tenaha overcomes Gary boys, girls

Tenaha coach John Davis said the team had a tough time against Gary. "We had a good game against Gary, but we were a bit too relaxed," he said. "We have to be more focused next week against our next opponent." Tenaha's defense was strong against Gary, and their offense was even better.

In first district win

Bulldogs can Chapel Hill

The Bulldogs were excited to win their first district game against Chapel Hill. Coach Bybee said the team played well and were able to make the transition from the new offense.

Elysian Fields downs Joaquin

Elysian Fields coach Bill Miller said his team played well against Joaquin. "We had a great game against Joaquin," he said. "Our defense was strong, and our offense was able to make some big plays." Elysian Fields' defense was key in their victory.
