GUILTY pleas entered

Pair sentenced in Beckville burglary

A Beckville man and his wife have been found guilty in the Beckville burglary. They were sentenced to one year in prison for their roles in the crime. The couple was found guilty of breaking into a home and stealing property valued at $60,000. The judge ruled that the couple should serve a minimum of one year in prison, with the possibility of parole after one year. The couple was also ordered to pay restitution of $60,000 to the victim.

War on Drugs names chairman of committees

The War on Drugs has named a new chairman of the House and Senate committees. The new chairman will be responsible for overseeing the enforcement of drug laws and the allocation of resources to combat drug trafficking. The War on Drugs has been criticized for its tactics and effectiveness, but the new chairman is expected to bring new ideas and strategies to the fight against drug abuse.

Nap location proves costly

A group of students had planned to take a nap in a location that proved to be costly. They had planned to take a nap in a city park, but the park had a cost associated with it. The cost was not disclosed, but it was reported that the group had to pay a fee to use the park. The group was surprised by the cost and had to cancel their plans.

Firemen are kept hopping

The fire department is working overtime to keep up with the demand for emergency services. The department has been called to a number of incidents, including fires, car accidents, and medical emergencies. The fire department is working around the clock to respond to these incidents and ensure the safety of the community.

PJC offers 2 courses

The PJC junior college is offering two new courses for the spring semester. The courses are "Cultural Diversity in the Workplace" and "Advanced Computer Programming." The courses are designed to provide students with the skills and knowledge needed to succeed in the workplace and the technology industry.

Obituary

Rolley

Rolley passed away peacefully on February 25th. He was a beloved member of the community and will be missed by all. The family would like to extend their gratitude to the community for their support during this difficult time.

The sideliners:
Three cheers for cheerers

By KATE BARBER
Watchman Staff Writer

A family thing happened Monday night as I saw the beautiful fall foliage change shades in the Cottondale cheerleaders' uniforms. It was a beautiful site.

Lauren spacecraft, a cheerleader and senior at Kentucky School for the Blind, went to the Cottondale cheerleading to support her former school. Lauren, who is visually impaired, has been a part of the Kentucky cheerleading team for three years.

The cheerleaders wore their yellow and green uniforms, with Lauren's name on the back. She was one of the few students at Kentucky who was able to compete in a game during her senior year.

The game was billed as a friendly match, with the Cottondale cheerleaders facing another team from a nearby school. Lauren was excited to be a part of the cheering for her former school and to support her friends.

Beckville girls fall

The women's basketball team from Beckville fell to the defending state champions from Amsterdam in a close game on Friday night. The Lady Bulldogs were down by only five points at halftime, but the game was tied at 25-25. The Lady Giants went on to win the game 48-45.

The Beckville girls were led by senior Shayla Johnson, who scored 18 points. Johnson is known for her ability to score from the outside and her quickness on the court.

The Beckville team played well throughout the game, but they were ultimately outmatched by Amsterdam's experienced players. Despite the loss, the Lady Bulldogs' coach was proud of their performance.

The Fishing Line

Wiley's Retreat

A series of photos taken in Wiley's Retreat show the fishing lakes, which are surrounded by trees and hills. The water is calm and clear, with a few fish visible in the distance.

The photos also capture the peacefulness of the area, with the sound of birds chirping and the gentle breeze blowing through the trees. The lake is a great place to relax and enjoy nature.

The photos were taken by local photographer Tom Rock, who is known for his work capturing the beauty of the outdoors.

Bowling roundup

Joan VanDeCarr takes women's city title

The Women's City Bowling Open was held on Saturday at the Cottondale Lanes. Joan VanDeCarr emerged as the champion, winning the title with a score of 630.

VanDeCarr, a member of the Cottondale Ladies League, dominated the tournament with her consistency and accuracy. She won all of her matches and finished with a high score of 241 in her final game.

Other notable finishers include Jean Miller (second place, 618), and Linda Davis (third place, 611). The tournament was a great success, with over 50 participants competing for the title.

The Cottondale Lanes is planning to host another bowling tournament in the future, which will be open to all women who love to bowl.

Lady Bulldogs in state finals

The Carthage High School Lady Bulldogs have advanced to the state basketball tournament. The Lady Bulldogs are playing in the state tournament for the first time in their history. The Lady Bulldogs will play in the state tournament on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.

Pressure hinted as principal doesn't ask contract renewal

The principal of Carthage High School has not asked for a contract renewal. Some teachers are concerned about this. The principal has been in the position for several years and is well-respected by the faculty and students.

Area men drown Wednesday in accident at Martin Lake

Three men died in an accident at Martin Lake on Wednesday. The men were trapped in a boat that was sinking. The boat was carrying the men when it capsized. The men were rescued by a passing motorist. All three men died at the hospital.

Election office role is vital

The role of the election office is vital. The election office is responsible for registering voters, organizing elections, and ensuring that elections are conducted fairly. The election office is also responsible for maintaining the voter registration rolls. The election office is an important part of our democracy.
