Ripple effects
By Vic Ross Parker

The rippling effect of the simple everyday event is the subject of this column. I believe that what happens in life is a result of what we do, and that what we do is a result of what we think.

Tom Jones' Notebook
Amazed

By Tom Jones

Without breaking a leg, Tom Jones was amazed at the amount of attention he received. People stopped and stared at him as he walked down the street, and he couldn't help but feel a bit embarrassed.

Daydreaming

By Sabine Philosopher

Vice President of the company, Sabine Philosopher, daydreamed about the possibilities of a new product line.

Barefooted bird shooter

There is just something about the sound of the birds' feet taking flight that brings a smile to my face. I've always been fascinated by birds, and the sight of them taking flight is a wonderful sight to behold.

Your Legislators

I believe that our legislators are doing a great job, and I am proud to support them in their efforts.

Marshall's World

The Panels of Watch

The Panels of Watch are a group of bird watchers who meet every other week to discuss the latest bird sightings. They love nothing more than spending time out in nature and observing the avian world around them.
