This Week

Saturdays, April 23

The United Methodist Church in Kilgore will hold their annual celebration of the life of Jesus Christ on this day. The service will begin at 9 a.m. and conclude with a delicious breakfast offered at the church.

St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Kilgore will also hold a special event on this day. The church will be open from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. for anyone wishing to visit and appreciate the beauty of the church.

War on Drugs: Forming of groups urged

A community-wide committee is being formed to address the issue of drug abuse in our area. The committee will meet on Tuesday at 7 p.m. at the Kilgore Civic Center to discuss strategies and initiatives.

Carthage businessman named to Kilgore board

The Carthage Chamber of Commerce is pleased to announce that a local businessman has been appointed to the board of directors for the Kilgore Chamber of Commerce. This is a significant move that will help to strengthen our community's economic development efforts.

Prom Time is...

The annual prom is scheduled for this Saturday at 8 p.m. at the Kilgore High School gymnasium. Tickets are available at the school office, and we encourage all students to attend and celebrate this special occasion.

Carthage musicians win UIL events

The Carthage High School band and choir members have been selected to compete in the UIL state music competitions. We are proud of their hard work and dedication, and we wish them all the best in their performances.

Publisher's Notes

"Nother world"
By Vic Rose Parker

The "Nother world" is a bewitching place that exists between dreams and reality often visited by our staff. It is a world where the possibilities are endless, and where the impossible seems possible. It's a place where the past and present meet, and the future is shaped by the present.

Exhilarating

By Tom Jones

ON MY LAST NARRATIVE of the mysterious experiences of the "Nother world," I mentioned that a blackbird had found the holy grail of the world, which was a key to the vault of heaven. The blackbird, however, was not interested in the key and simply flew away.

Better at tying knots

While there are a lot of things to do in this world, one of the most important is learning to tie knots. It's not just a matter of aesthetics, but also of practicality. You never know when you might need to tie a rope, a knot, or a shoelace. Here are some tips to help you get started:

1. Learn the basic knots: Before you can learn more complex knots, you need to master the basics. These include the bowline, the fishermans knot, and the prusik knot.

2. Practice makes perfect: Practice tying knots as much as possible. The more you do it, the better you will get.

3. Use the right equipment: Make sure you have the right equipment for tying knots. This includes a good quality rope and a sharp knife.
