District attorney may ask counties to fund assistant

CITIZENS - STOP LOCAL FUNDRAISING: A new bill by State Rep. R. H. Williams, D-Austin, designed to end all county fundraisers, passed unanimously in the House. The legislation would require all county fundraisers to be approved by the local courts. The bill was sponsored by the state attorney general. Party workers say the bill would have little impact.

District attorney questions: The district attorney has asked for more funds to continue his investigation into the cases of the county. The current budget is insufficient to carry out the investigation adequately. The district attorney is considering asking the county for additional funds to continue the investigation.

Appraisal notices are sent out: Appraisal notices for the county are being sent out. The notices are used to assess the value of property in the county. The notices are sent out by the county appraisal district. The notices are used to determine the value of property for tax purposes.

Amber waves of grain?

Never did I ever dream that amber waves of grain would be seen where once planted cotton. All was cotton, cotton, cotton. Now, there is a little bit of amber waves of grain. And it's been interesting to watch the cotton fields turn to farmlands, and to see the old cotton gin now turned into a modern tractor."I think this is the most interesting thing I've ever seen."

I am writing this letter as a result of the recent article in the Watchman. I read it and I was very impressed. As a reader, I feel that the Watchman is doing a great job of reporting on local news and events.

I wanted to express my gratitude for the excellent coverage of the local community. The Watchman has been covering local news for many years and has been a valuable resource for the community. I appreciate the hard work of the editors and reporters.

Thank you for your dedication to reporting the truth and keeping our community informed. Keep up the good work.

Yours sincerely,

Mike Douglas

Less suffering and need

I have never gone through a time when I felt that everything was going well. My family is in need of help and I am feeling very down.

I have been helping others in different ways and I feel that I have been doing my part. But I am feeling very down and I need someone to talk to.

Thank you for being there for me.

Yours sincerely,

Mike Douglas

Whirlwind of showers, parties precede Eden, Griffith wedding

In the abode of nature growing running the direction of Edens, a gentle breeze whispered, 'The rain is coming, bring your umbrellas.' And so, it did. Rainy suits, umbrellas, and jackets were seen in abundance as guests gathered for the outdoor ceremony. The venue was beautifully decorated with blue and white florals, matching the color scheme of the wedding. Guests sipped on refreshing drinks and enjoyed the light and airy atmosphere while the rain gently fell. The couple exchanged vows under the gaze of their closest friends and family. During the reception, guests indulged in a delicious menu of appetizers and mains, with live music setting the mood. The evening ended with a perfect sunset, leaving memories that would last a lifetime.

History of poetry group given during program in Henderson

The Henderson Poetry Group (HPG) was established in 1972 by a group of local poets who wanted to share their love for poetry and to provide a platform for other poets to express their creativity. Over the years, the HPG has grown significantly, with members from all walks of life joining together to share their passion for poetry. The group meets every month to read their work, discuss poetry-related topics, and listen to guest speakers. The HPG's mission is to promote the appreciation and understanding of poetry and to encourage the writing of poetry in the Henderson community. The group has organized several successful events, including poetry workshops, poetry readings, and poetry contests. The HPG continues to inspire its members and the community with its commitment to the art of poetry.

Cheddar Cheese

Pennies

In the world of today, where businesses are forced to compete and survive, there is a true story of a small town named Cheddar Cheese. In a town where every dollar counts, a little girl named Penny started her own business. She would sell small bags of cheddar cheese to her neighbors and friends. With each penny earned, Penny would save it in a little jar, which grew bigger and bigger. As the years went by, Penny started to notice a trend: her cheese was popular among the locals. Realizing the potential, Penny decided to sell her cheese in a shop she had named "Pennies." With every penny she earned, Penny invested in her shop, employing local workers and expanding her business. Today, "Pennies" is a thriving business, and everyone in the town is proud of Penny and her hard work. The story of Penny and her cheese is a testament to the power of hard work and determination in the face of adversity.

Mims family reunion

held June 19 in Gary

The Mims family reunion was held on June 19 in Gary. The event was well attended, with many family members from different parts of the country gathering to celebrate. The reunion was held at the local community center, where everyone had a chance to reconnect and reminisce about old times. There were various activities planned for the day, including games, music, and a family photo session. The event ended with a delicious barbecue dinner, where everyone enjoyed tasty food and good company. The family reunion was a heartwarming event that brought together family members, creating memories that would last a lifetime.
