For the last 24 hours, rain showers have been frequent. The weather is much better than it was a week ago. The water levels are much higher. However, our town did not experience any flooding. The streets are clear and dry. The rain has caused some damage to our crops. The farmers are working hard to try to save as much as possible.

The purpose of the questionnaires is to gather feelings of the merchants. The final results of the survey will be reported on at the November meeting.

The following opinions of the merchants, the issue of downtown parking, contributed to the formation of the survey. If parking is a problem, the city sent emissaries to negotiate with the merchants. That doesn't mean that it means that merchants would have to be downtown.

The parking problem will be the first thing on the agenda for the next merchant meeting. Mrs. Paul McMillan, chairman of the questionnaire discussion group was asked if the merchants would be able to speak on the survey.

The name of the town where I was born is Carthage. It is a place that is full of history and culture. Carthage is the hometown of many famous people, including President Woodrow Wilson and the actress Bette Davis. It is also the site of the famous Carthage Cup, which is a piece of art that is on display in the town square. The Carthage Cup has been passed down through generations and is a symbol of the town's heritage.

SPORTS VIEW
The Kentucky Derby always delivers
By George Cominsky

The sport's name is thoroughbred horse racing, but to most people, it's the Kentucky Derby. The tradition of a tradition begins May 6th in Louisville. The Quid Pro Quo, with Marion Pistorius, is the favorite in the Exercise Greenhouse. Other than the basic rules, the Derby is a race of odds, not of the fastest horse. The race is part of the Triple Crown. The horse that wins the Kentucky Derby is a favorite to win the Preakness in Baltimore and the Belmont in New York. The Triple Crown is a combination of luck and strategy. The Derby, however, is a race of strategy, not of luck. The jockeys are professional athletes who use their skill and experience to win the race. The horses are trained to run at their best over a specific distance. The jockeys are responsible for positioning the horses in the starting gate, deciding when to make the move, and choosing the right pace for the race. The jockeys must also be able to read the other jockeys' strategies and adjust their own accordingly. The Derby is a race of strategy, not of luck. The jockeys are responsible for the horses' success, and they must be able to use their skills and experience to win the race. The Derby is a race of strategy, not of luck.

First Things First

By Bob Heitkamp
The annual Women's Missionary Conference ushered in the season of Fall with a rich spiritual atmosphere.

Members of the conference gathered to celebrate the season of Fall and to share their faith and experiences with others. The event was held at a local church and featured a variety of activities, including devotions, workshops, and a keynote speech.

The keynote speaker, a well-known author and minister, shared insights from her own experiences and encouraged the congregation to deepen their faith and convictions. The day was filled with inspiring messages and powerful moments of connection.

The conference was an opportunity for women to come together and support each other in their spiritual journeys. Attendees were encouraged to continue to grow in their faith and to be a light in the world.

Next year's conference is scheduled for September 14-16, and interested individuals are invited to register early to secure their spots.

Attending the conference was a rewarding experience, and it left a lasting impression on all who participated. The event was a beautiful reminder of the power of faith and the importance of community in our lives.
