Board holds unannounced executive session

Hospital hires nurse protest wage cuts

By Earl Cheeser

NOTE: Portions of the following were taken from a prepared statement released to a number of members of the planning committee of Panola General Hospital prior to a rally held Wednesday evening on the Panola General Hospital campus, with Manager Tuesday morning.

Protesting major wage and salary cuts creating economic hardship for their families, Panola General Hospital nurses organized to address the board of managers Tuesday, soliciting their specific requests.

A major request issued by representatives of the nursing staff was for a 10 percent wage increase.

The board went into executive session with representatives of the nursing staff present. The meeting was held in public session board chairman Jim Smith announced that no re-arranging of the agenda would be held pending further investigation.

And salary cuts initiated Monday and salary cut by the board.

In addition to requesting the prepared statement also requested an additional salary cut of 1 percent for all nurses.

The board held an emergency meeting on Tuesday night to discuss the protest. The meeting was held in public session with the nurses present.

Dr. Ken Kelly, president of the board, said that the board had been informed that the nurses were planning to hold a protest meeting on Tuesday night.

The board decided that the nurses would be allowed to speak at the meeting, but that they would not be allowed to vote on any decisions.

The nurses were granted permission to speak at the meeting, but were not allowed to vote on any decisions.

Dr. Kelly said that the board was concerned about the nurses' salaries and that they would take the matter under consideration.

But 1982 was significant in another respect as well. This year was used to determine the cost of the hospital's operations under the new Medicare program.

And for that purpose, all hospital costs were calculated at Panola General Hospital in order to ensure maximum continuing service to the community.

So in 1983 we had to determine a higher cost in order to qualify for more money from Medicare.

The new Medicare program was designed to provide hospitals with increased revenues and to improve the quality of care provided to patients.

Thus, the need for a higher cost reimbursement was a natural step in the evolution of hospital services.

As a result of this increase in cost, the hospital was able to maintain its high level of service to patients.

In conclusion, it is clear that the Medicare program has had a positive impact on hospital care.

We must continue to work towards ensuring that all Americans have access to quality healthcare.
