EDITORIAL

How many of us vote, not who we vote for, counts in this election

Numbers play a major role in our daily lives, the role of numbers in an election is no exception. A special election will be held on June 19 in Panola County to fill three seats on the District 8 school board. Among the many important issues that will be decided at this election is the future of education in our community.

Many people seem to think that if they don't vote, someone else will. But this is not true. The people who do vote are the ones who make the decisions that affect our lives. If you want to have a say in the future of our community, you need to vote. The election is in Panola County and there are three seats up for grabs.

Austin Highlights

Political eyes turn to election battle for district congressional seat

Re-elected Rep. Greg Morris, R-Panola, who has served the District 8 seat since 2005, is facing a challenge from Panola County Commissioner Johnnie McCollum, D-Clear Springs, in the June 19 election. Morris, a first-term congressman, is expected to win easily.

McCollum, a former mayor of Cresson and a long-time county leader, has promised to bring new ideas to the district.

Letter writer reminds of other promises

The District 8 seat is up for grabs on June 19, and two candidates are vying for it: Rep. Greg Morris and Panola County Commissioner Johnnie McCollum.

Morris, who currently holds the seat, has been in office since 2005. He has promised to work on improving education, healthcare, and infrastructure in the district.

McCollum, on the other hand, has promised to focus on economic development, job creation, and improved services for the community.

As Congressional election nears

Chicken barbecuing time

Texas size barbecuing has become a tradition and a staple of our culture. It's the perfect way to enjoy mouth-watering, succulent meat, often served with a side of beans, cornbread, and coleslaw. Here are a few more tips for the perfect chicken barbecuing:

- Season it well: Use a mixture of spices such as paprika, cumin, and garlic powder to add flavor.
- Marinate the chicken: For a more flavorful dish, marinate the chicken for at least an hour before cooking.
- Smoke it slow: Use a slow cooking method to ensure the chicken is tender and juicy.
- Check the temperature: Make sure the internal temperature of the chicken reaches 165°F.

Now that you have the basics, let's dive into some fun and creative recipes:

Whole Fryers
- Ingredients: 2-4 whole chickens, 2 cups of your favorite barbecue sauce, 1 cup of honey, 1/4 cup of brown sugar.
- Instructions: Preheat your grill to medium-high heat. Place the chickens on the grill and baste with the sauce mixture. Cook for about 30 minutes on each side, or until the chicken reaches a内部 temperature of 165°F.

Pork Steaks
- Ingredients: 4 pork steaks, 1/4 cup of barbecue sauce, 1/4 cup of honey, 1/4 cup of brown sugar.
- Instructions: Preheat your grill to medium-high heat. Place the pork steaks on the grill and baste with the sauce mixture. Cook for about 10 minutes on each side, or until the pork reaches a internal temperature of 145°F.

Beef Brisket
- Ingredients: 1 beef brisket, 1 cup of barbecue sauce, 1/2 cup of honey, 1/2 cup of brown sugar.
- Instructions: Preheat your grill to medium-high heat. Place the brisket on the grill and baste with the sauce mixture. Cook for about 1 hour, or until the brisket reaches a internal temperature of 195°F.

Duck or Chicken Wings
- Ingredients: 2 pounds of wings, 1/4 cup of barbecue sauce, 1/4 cup of honey, 1/4 cup of brown sugar.
- Instructions: Preheat your grill to medium-high heat. Place the wings on the grill and baste with the sauce mixture. Cook for about 10 minutes on each side, or until the wings are golden brown.

Side Dishes
- Coleslaw: Mix 1/2 cup of mayonnaise, 1/4 cup of white vinegar, 1 teaspoon of sugar, 1/4 teaspoon of salt, and 1/8 teaspoon of pepper. Add 1/2 cup of shredded cabbage and 1/4 cup of finely chopped celery. Mix well and refrigerate for at least 30 minutes.
- Beans: Cook 1 can of black beans in a pot with 1 can of diced tomatoes, 1/2 cup of chopped onions, and 1/4 cup of chopped green peppers. Season with salt and pepper to taste.

Desserts
- Peach Cobbler: Mix 1 can of peach pie filling, 1 cup of all-purpose flour, 1/2 cup of brown sugar, and 1/2 teaspoon of cinnamon. Pour into an 8x8 inch baking dish. Sprinkle 1/2 cup of all-purpose flour over the top. Bake at 350°F for 30 minutes.

Enjoy your barbecue time with these delicious and satisfying recipes! Happy grilling!
