Texas House Speaker Lewis returns from controversial Africa trip; Clayton re-aligns

By Jayne Smith Williams

Speaker Clayton left on June 14 for a highly publicized trip to Ghana and seven other African countries as part of the LegislativeDelegation, but his departure came after a series of controversial events on the floor of the House.

The trip was planned months in advance, and Clayton had said he would present a report on his findings. However, Clayton's trip coincided with a series of votes that were widely criticized by both Republicans and Democrats. Clayton's re-alignment might be related to the controversy surrounding his trip and the votes he cast.

Reader questions congressional actions

Editor, The Austin Statesman:

George Weidner of Austin comments on the recent controversy surrounding the Republican Party candidate and the possible impact on the upcoming election.

As a member of the Republican Party, I am concerned about the recent actions of the party and its candidates. The party's attempts to suppress voter turnout and the spread of misinformation on social media are not only unethical, but also potentially illegal. I urge the party to focus on issues that matter to voters and to work towards a fair and transparent election.

Letter to the Editor

"C-O-K-E now spells controversy"

I have recently decided that the phrase "C-O-K-E" now spells controversy. The phrase has been used by both presidential candidates, and the controversy surrounding its use has become a hot topic in the media. It is important for the candidates to focus on serious issues and avoid using phrases that can be easily misunderstood.

Let's Say NO To Governor White

Governor Mark White wants you to send his friend Jim Chapman to Congress.

He's the same Mark White who has given us the LARGEST TAX INCREASE in Texas history - $1.5 million from working men and women.

He's the same Mark White who supported Walter Mondale for President.

He's the same Mark White who gets most of his support from labor union bosses in Austin.

He's the same Mark White who supports the illegal National Democratic leadership in Washington.

He's the same Mark White who turned his back on the Texas school teachers.

He's the same Mark White... well ... we could go on forever?

Maybe working people here in Panola County ought to say NO to Mark White and send OUR FRIEND Edd Hargett to Congress.

Edd Hargett is the kind of independent-thinking candidate we can trust. He thinks like we do. Edd Hargett owes his political allegiances only to the conservative philosophy of East Texans.

On August 3rd, let's say NO to Mark White, NO to the big labor union bosses, NO to the liberals who support Jim Chapman.
