Williamson elected to Baptist board

By Dave Lightbourn

Helen C. Williamson of Carthage was one of six new members of the Board of Trustees of the Texas Baptist Board of Church and Community Relations. She was seated at the annual meeting in Houston Dec. 4. She is the wife of Dr. Jack Will Williamson, who has been on the board for three years and was reelected to another three-year term at the annual meeting. Three years ago she was named by the board to fill the unexpired term of the late Dr. J. C. Finch, also of Carthage. Finch had been on the board for 22 years.

Williamson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Maxwell of Carthage. She attended Carthage High School and Southwestern College before moving to Austin to attend the University of Texas. She is a charter member of the stewardship committee at First Baptist Church, Carthage. She is involved in the Community Chest and other related causes.

The enacting body of the Baptist Convention of Texas, the Annual Meeting, reelected the following individuals to the positions held for the past three years:

Chairman J. A. D. Hanes, Marshall; vice-chairman T. L. W. Williams, San Antonio; secretary-treasurer, E. D. Bland, Austin.

In addition to the singles who were also elected to the board, the following individuals were elected to fill the unexpired terms of Dr. Finch and the late W. C. Craft, also of Carthage:

The board met at the annual meeting of the Baptist Convention of Texas and elected the following officers:

President, R. H. Pickens, Beulah; vice-president, W. F. C. Williams, San Antonio; secretary-treasurer, W. H. Smith, Boerne.

The board also elected the following at-large members:

J. W. Snell, Jr., Austin; J. D. Riser, Jr., Austin; J. B. W. Jones, Jr., Austin; W. A. Matthews, Jr., Austin; W. C. Craft, Jr., Austin.

Post co-founder dies in fiery crash

The co-founder of the Panola County Post, John Milton "Jack" Qualls, Sr., 79, died late Thursday at a hospital in Atlanta after a collision with a tree. Qualls was on his way to the airport to fly to Miami to promote his new book. The accident occurred on US Highway 29 about three miles from the town of Fitzgerald. The Panola County Post was founded in 1955 by Qualls and his wife, Mary. Qualls had been in the city of Atlanta for a book signing event earlier in the day.

Incendium with child alleged

The former operator of the Panola County Post, Thomas "Tom" Cox, 57, was arrested in Carriage Hill after a violent confrontation with a former employee. The incident occurred on US Highway 29 near the town of Fitzgerald. Cox was arrested on charges of assault and battery.
