Core Components and Related College Student Learning Outcomes:
This course counts as part of the academic requirements of the Panola College Core Curriculum and an Associate of Arts or Associate of Science degree. ___ Yes ☒ No

Instructional Goals and Purposes:
The purpose of this course is to promote development of college-level writing skills and to provide support and reinforcement of skills for INRW 0302.

Learning Outcomes (from ACGM):
After studying course materials and resources, the student will be able to:

1. Compose a variety of texts that demonstrate clear focus, the logical development of ideas, and the use of appropriate language that advances the writer's purpose.
2. Determine and use effective approaches and rhetorical strategies for given writing situations.
3. Generate ideas and gather information relevant to the topic and purpose, incorporating the ideas and words of other writers in student writing using established strategies.
4. Evaluate relevance and quality of ideas and information to formulate and develop a claim.
5. Develop and use effective revision strategies to strengthen the writer's ability to compose college-level writing assignments.
6. Edit writing to conform to the conventions of standard English

Course Content:
General descriptions of topics included in this course are listed in the Learning Outcomes section of this syllabus.

Methods of Instruction/Course Format/Delivery:
This course is offered online and face-to-face with online lab components. Students use the Canvas Learning Management System and an online language lab to complete assignments. Instructors facilitate and monitor progress.
Methods of Instruction:

- Instructor facilitation
- Online lab activities
- Instructor-assigned activities—may include reading, writing, and grammar activities as needed

Lab Activities: Students will receive individualized instruction based on assessment in the online reading/writing lab software. Sixteen hours of participation in the Study Plan are required. Instructors will monitor and facilitate the lab activities to maximize progress.

Technical Skill Requirements:
Students enrolled in BWRI 0101 should be able to:

- Use a web browser to access online reading lab
- Download and upload documents and files
- Access and use the Canvas Learning Management System and the online reading lab software
- Use Inbox within Canvas to communicate with instructor

Major Assignments/Assessments:
The following items will be assigned and assessed during the semester and used to calculate the student's final grade in INRW 0302

Assignments:

- Individual Reading/Writing Study Plan
- Targeted activities to improve achievement in INRW 0302

Assessment:

- Individual Reading/Writing Study Plan
- Success strategies, including attendance/participation, personal responsibility, and other skills that support achievement in college classes

Course Grade:
BWRI 0101 is a support lab for INRW 0302. Students who achieve a grade of C or above in INRW 0302 will receive a grade of PASS in BWRI 0101.

Attendance:
The attendance policy for BWRI0101 is aligned with the official policy outlined in Panola College’s student handbook, The Pathfinder.

Regular and punctual attendance of classes is required of all students. When an instructor feels that a student has been absent to such a degree as to invalidate the learning experience, the instructor may withdraw the student for non-attendance—see The Pathfinder (page 10) for complete information.

Texas Success Initiative Plan (TSI) Class Required Attendance

Students who have not satisfactorily completed the TSI testing requirement must be enrolled and participate continuously (every semester) in developmental education in at least one subject area, as determined by the institution. Excessive absence or non-participation in the coursework will result in a grade of “FAIL” for the course.
Withdrawing from a Course:
Students are responsible for officially withdrawing from classes. A student who stops attending a class without officially withdrawing from that class will receive a grade of FAIL.

Texts, Materials, and Supplies:
- Computer access
- Canvas Account (provided by Panola College)
- Panola College EdReady language lab software (provided by Panola College)
