Instructional Goals and Purposes:
The purpose of this course is to 1) create an academic atmosphere in which students may develop their intellects and skills and 2) provide courses so students may receive a certificate/an associate degree or transfer to a senior institution that offers Baccalaureate degrees through the study of an introduction to the varied histories of world drama and theater as an art form, as a profession, as a social event, and as an agent of cultural definition through the ages. The purpose of Introduction to Theatre is to increase students' understanding, appreciation, and critical perceptions of the theatrical event. Readings and lectures will focus on the elements of theatrical practice; artists and innovators of theatre throughout history; and on the theatre's development as an art form and a social phenomenon; participation in class forum discussions and sharing of critiques and short reports will offer avenues to explore students' individual theatrical interests; and attendance at theatrical events will offer first hand experience in theatre arts.
